By EDGAR A. GUEST (Copyright, 1943, Edgar A. Guest) CONVERSATION WITH GROADS

Whenever conversation slows, whenever conversation slows,
One certain topic I propose.
Since most of us are temple-gray,
And several pounds foo heavy weigh;
Now carrying capsules, tablets, pills,
For middle-age's various ills,
I say: "While time to chat remains,
Lat's table." Let's talk about our aches and pains!"

When tired of war and politics, Joe Stalin and his many tricks; Inflation, strikes, domestic strife; What widower's soon to take a wife, And all the gossips think they know, As wagging tongues begin to slow, Attention this suggestion gains: "bet's talk about our aches and pains."

A happy group we're been tor year,
But now there's gray above our ean.
But now there's gray above our ean.
And we have reached the diamat stage.
When all must bear the pangs of age,
Some suffer indigestion's woo.
Others arthritic singers above,
From all the bloom of youth has flown.
"Come on!" I say. "Let's moan and groan."

"Didn'a I tell you not to propose to that girl in my best pair of panis!"

AS IT GOES

The seed, and then the tender root,
The bud, the blossom and the fruit,
And autumn's close;
The springtime rains, the summer sun,
Then winter, and the labors done;
And so it goes.

First childhood (and how sweet it seems!)
Then youth with all the golden dreams
The young mind knows.
Then joys and sorrows, good and ill;
Then last, gray clouds and winter's chill;

Through seasons four man's pathways run. Life is a blend of cloud and sun

. And so it goes.

From birth to close.

Playtime and toll time, smiles and tears, With deeds, the harvest of his years;

And so it goes.

ALUMINUM helps every body.

In INDUSTRY: Concellen rollways, for example, are using more and more aluminum in freight cars and passenger conches.

in the HOME: 100, more and more articles are being made of aluminum — washing muchine tubs, for instance.

The reasons? There are many! Aluminum is light, strong, easy to keep clean. It is durable, and it cannot rust. It is economical because, through research and large-scale production, the price has been brought down 25% since 1939.

Today, more than 1000 Canadian companies are fash-ioning aluminum into countless useful and beautiful shapes—as varied as buses and aircraft, garden tools and vacuum cleaners.

Tomorrow its advantages will be adapted to make still other articles which are lighter and more attractive. Next time you go shopping, notice how many things are made of aluminum.

"FOREIGN EXCHANGE"

last year found its way to 48 other countries, the largest buyers broad being the United Kingdom 3 and the United States. Our production was so great that, after Canadian manufacturers had been supplied, we still had 85% left of foreign exchange.

We might all forgetful grow
Of the joys that couldn't last
If the memory didn't know
What to cheriah of the past.

Bolivar's Dream Kecalled Simon Bolivar, who was commenced to the Simon Simon Bolivaria of the Simon Bolivaria and do survive to this day. Oreat modern cities have come into being, but savagery has not died out of the jungles and, the backlands. It is only a faw years alone the backlands of the only a faw years alone the North, often denounced so vigorously as Byain used to be — has ceased to hold a stern and not always disinterested paren-tal hand over the maller republics and as-sumed a more modet and brublerly role. Riccently, however, President Truman and President Gallegos of Venezuela could recognize that progress had been made toward the attainment of Bollvar's ideals. Senor Gallegos apily quoted the words of the Liberator: "I am the son of war, the m hattles trave raised to the Presi man whom battles have raised to the Presi-dency, A man such as I am is a dangerous citizen in a popular government." Vene-suela's Executive, elected last December, need have no such scruples. He was chosen in what was said to be the flag popular election of its kind in the equatry's laisory, and he came to state-smanify from a dig-tinguished career as a novellist. Bolitze would see the further of the Bolitzer would see the further of the battles Bollvår would see the irfurs of nu Batties his Andea crossings, in Venezuela today. His dreams for South America, like those of his great contemporary, San Marthi, are long in being realized. They are none-the less allive, as recent proceedings showed. Missouri and Venezuela could understand each other. — New York Times.

We were driving very slowly when we passed a huge machine,

We were driving very slowly when we passed a huge machine, And the trooper on the highway knew his car we both had seen.

I knew he knew we didn't mean to break a safety law,
So I couldn't understand it when his
"I have stopped you for a warning," hex politely said to me.
"That's a dangerous bit of highway, where an accident stud be."

He was pleasant in his manner and his voice he didn't raise, and the way he did his duty I am writing now to praise. We stood and taken district of the stood and taken did not the same was clear a head. I am making this suggestion: On a dangerous throughfare Xuu'll be happler and safer it you girts with gravite case.

I didn't tell the trooper that his cap-tain is my friend.

Twas a cheerful conversation from the start unto the end.

But I'm writing these few verses, which he may or may not note,
As a tribute to a trooper I am hoping he'll promote.

I was glad to have him stop me, since his conduct made it plain
That a man can be a trooper and a gentleman remain.

JUST FOLKS By EDGAR A. GUEST (Copyright, 1943, Edgar A. Guest) FLOWERS AND FRIENDS

There are flowers that have to be Watched and guarded tenderly; Fraglie blooms the winds may chill And one touch of frost will kill. These are usually the few Gardeners list as: "something new."

There are others stronger grown
We have longer loved and known:
Flowers our mothers long ago
In their gardens used to grow;
Blooms to cut and give away.
Called "old-fashioned" now are they.

So with friendships. Some must be Watched and guarded tenderly. They are sensitive to alight, Quick to fade and suffer blight. They're the glamorous, fragile few Taken up as "something new."

But until life's journey ends
Every one of us depends
On the friendahlps that are sure
All the cold winds to endure.
Friends the good, "old-fashioned" kind.

JUST FOLKS By EDGAR A. GUEST syright, 1943, Edgar A. Guest) TOWN AND COUNTRY

Men and women, in the town,
Tramping sidewalks up and down,
On their faces seem to wear.
All the various signs of care,
Franchy by, we bennok know
What they eagerly pursus?
What they eagerly pursus?
What they is they go to do?
What their thoughts, by night or day,
At leay hatten on their way?
At leay menting or the west,
In the restful prairs are they.

Clearly seen is what they seek. In the restrul parks are they, Watching children at their play. Underneath the shady trees Hearts and minds appear at ease; Lovers, walking hand in hand; Some, admiring beauty, stand; All, a little while; content; Living as God must have meant.

ONLY A BABY
Over the crib when the night slips down
The dreams come in,
Dreams of the triumph and fair renown
The gallant win.

Only a baby that's tucked away
As night-draws near,
But following on with the first glad day
The dreams appear.

For those who stand at the cradle's side The small hands hold Days of gloryvand love and pride The years unfold.

Far off as yet are the cap and gown The child may wear; Far off are fortune and fair renown, But the dreams are there.

24-Hour Watch On Log Booms Victoria, July 13 (CP)—Gur

The Mutual Life of Canada has announced that eight members of its Belleville Branch have qualified for membership in the Company's production clubs on their outstanding records in the Club Year recently closed.

They are: Messrs, D. G. Williams and P. P. Everett, Belleville; C. H. Burr, Picton; W. E. Wiggins, Bancroft; R. Gamble and J. G. Jeffery, Trenton; S. R. Burrows, C.L.U., who recently retired from the management of the agency, and P. C. McGuire, C.LU., Branch Manager.

Qualification for Club membership requires not only the underwriting of a large volume of protection, but, more important, the writing from year to year of "quality" business, that is, life insurance that is continued in force. These two factors, combined with a high personal standard of confidential service to policyholders, earn this recognition for Mutual Life representatives

JUST FOLKS By RDGAR A. GUEST (Copyright, 1948, Edgar A. Go LAST ONE IN

Grandpas all, I'd like to know Just how far we ought to go? Must we, temples turning gray, Try to be sk young as they, And the boys we were contrive In our hearts to keep alive?

When they come to us and say:
"Geel the water's fine today!"
Adding with a regulah grin:
"You knew what's the last one in!"
Should we try it just once more
Or stay watching on the show?

This the problem that is mine; Where must grandpas draw the line? Should the spirt bid us go. When the shivering flesh says "no"? "Last one's in's a chump!" they shoul. What's the grandpa who stays out?

JUST FOLKS By EDGAR A. GUEST (Copyright, 1948, Edgar A. Guest)

QUATRAINS

Golfer's Wail

I never play golf the way I should.

Like the girl with the curl on her forehead;

When my game is good, it is very, very good.

But when it is bad it is horrid.

sing inconvenience it brings,
Men grumble and complain,
But all the earth's sweet growing things
Seem grateful for the rain.

The Worker
This my father used to say:
"Fame and fortune frown on shirks."
When they have rewards to pay,
They select some lad who works."

Bass Fisherman
The finny monsters of the sea
Have weight in mass.
But this is thrill enough for me:
A three-pound bass!

By EDGAR A. GUEST (Copyright, 1943, Edgar A. Guest) THE BETTER WORLD

That better world we hope to see 19-fashioned in our dreams, And still men fear it cannot be, 80 far away it seems.

For peace, in prayer at night, we plead, With hearts that ache and burn, Yet with the day, aroused by greed, To quarreling we return.

We share the dream of brotherhood, And in its cause enlist, But still in every neighborhood The ancient hates exist.

Not as a gift from God can come A better world, but when The passions now so troublesome Shall mastered be by men.

CANDY MANNERS

An expert in the art of sweets,
As quoted in the press,
Declares that all who serve such treats
Some manners should possess.
For instance: candy cannot stand Rough usage from an eager hand.

The box that holds a pound or two
Is with assortments lined,
And none should paw the contents through,

A favorite piece to find.

Into a chocolate to bite
And put it back is never right.

But most important of the rules.

The expert this regards:
"Shun skrving anything that drools
To guests when playing cards."
Rich caramels will never do
For friends whose upper plates are new

Perhaps such manners suit the old, But what for children small? Will they behave as they are told Or snatch the best-of all? When candy in the room they see,
Just how well mannared can they be? OWN THE RECORD

200,000 HOUSES NEXT YEAR

A revised housing program for the com-ing year has just been announced by the United Kingdom Minister of Health. At the time of last year's cuts in capital expendi-ture it was estimated that the annual rate of construction would fall to 140,000 houses after the present month. It is now intended to maintain the present month. It is now intended to maintain the present rate of 20,000 houses a month until the end of the year. The provisional program of 200,000 houses for 1949 has been decided upon in relation to the probable supplies of soft timber.

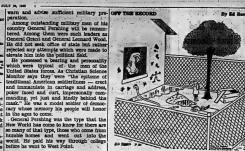

Beer may go to fifteen cents a glass. Many an old-timer will yearn for the nickel schooner, two or three of which would just about fill a swimming pool.

My father told me not-to boast.
That was a trait he histed most.
Said he: "Remember, life long through

And when your work is good 'twill show

But keep in mind when praise you've won,
Tomorrow's task must still be done.

Hide any prise you may receive, Lest you the gatudy thing deceive. For, seeing it upon the deal You may begin to praise yourself. You may begin to praise yourself. Rejoice when victory you're won. But with tomorrow's rising nun. Remember, causes another test. You'll lose unless you do your best.

JUST FOLKS By EDGAR A. GUEST (Copyright, 1968, Edgar A. Guest)

"THAT LAST HAND"

When midnight comes and home I'd go.

Always it seems to be my fate.

For guests whose game of badge is slow.

The while they end their play to wait.

"Were at the last hand now!" they cry.

"The prizes aren't awarded yet."

And then whatever did they try.

Is one that's certain to be set.

That last hand!" Does the devil smile

As domenot deals the cards around,
As bomenot deals the cards around,
The hail clock ticking all the white,
And none to make a bid that's sound?
Old Father Time keeps moving on,
NG caring who the prize may get,
And even no trimp blds of one
Continually being set.

Of all the things that I detest
That slowly fritter time away
And keep me from my needed rest,
"That last hand!" heads the list, I'd say.
"That last hand!" watched with droopin lids:

And groaning yawns which I regret. "That last hand!" due to foolish bids, That is forever being set,

And I knew the lady knew it, so myworst I let her see.

Now I know she really meant it when she said "good-bye" to me.

Every once in a while a Canadian manufacturer creates something new and different — something better — superb in fact.

This time, it is C.C.M. who have designed and manufactured two completely new CC-M. bicycles which we present, with considerable pride, to Canadian cyclists.

These smart new C.C.M.'s are known as the C.C.M. Club Racer and the C.C.M. Club Roadster. They possess every feature of design and quality that either you or we could possibly desire in a bicycle. Some of these features are:

The front fork and head, the three-piece sprocket hanger, the locking cones on the hubs are all of new

Then there are the featherweight steel guards with raised centres, the throme plated Endrick rims, C.C.M.'s exclusive low-temperature, frame braz-ing and the beautiful steel blue lustrous poariescent enamel on the club racer and C.C.M.'s famous rich marcon on the readster together with Dunlop "Sports" light-weight tires all combine to create two truly beautiful, new, 1949 C.C.M. bicycles.

These C.C.M.'s will be at your C.C.M. dealers' soon and it will delight you just to look at them -they're wonderful!

SUMMER COTTAGE QUIET

Twas for quiet that I came to the cot-tage by the lake.

"You are weary." said the doctor,
"and a rest you ought to take.
You should leave the crowded city with its ceaseless stress and strain.

Go where worry cannot find you, and you'll soon be well again."

Twas for quiet that I came. I remembered that advice,

For I fancied the suggestion since it sounded rather nice.

sounded rather nice.

Now a most unearthly screaming has me suddenly awake,

And I think somebody's youngster just has fallen in the lake.

At dawn the crows start cawing, and at eve the whip-poor-will Lashes Willie within racket neither law nor pleacan still. And when it's time for swimming all the children race the stairs, And they bang the doors, departing, in the rapture that is theirs.

Oh, I wonder if that doctor who had ordered me away

To a lakeside summer cottage ever, went a month to stay?
"It is quiet you are needing," were the words he said to me. Were a summer cottage quiet, what a dismal place 'twould be!

By EDGAR A. GUEST (Copyright, 1968, Edgar A. Guest) THE CHEERFUL WORD

Perhaps it's just a little lie
Or flattery tinctured sweet,
But always happier am I
A cheerful friend to meet.

I know that better I shall be

As I go on my way someone thinks to say to me: "How well you look today."

Though I'm no hypochondriac, With constant fears beset, Imagining the dread attack Of pain that he may get, I soumone say: "Your face seems it Although I'm hale and strong, I believe it and begin To think that something's wrong.

The human family seems to me So curiously designed at That many a maiady can be A figurent of the mind. If someone with a shaking head

Sees spots upon my skin,
I'll think I ought to go to bed
And call the doctor in.

But whether it be true or no,
The cheering to be told
That I have not begun to show
The signs of growing old.
Though flattery false perhaps it be,
No pills for which I pay,
As this, do so much good for ma:
"How well you look today!"
